HAUPPAUGE, NY – May 5 2025 – ClearVision Optical recently attended the Best Companies to Work for in New York awards gala, where the company was officially inducted into the Best Company Group’s “Hall of Fame” after earning the honor for the 10th time. At the event, ClearVision also learned it placed #13 out of 21 winners in the medium-sized company category for 2025.

“We’re beyond thrilled to be inducted into the Hall of Fame after ten years of being named a Best Company to Work for in New York,” said Jennifer Trakhtenberg, chief people officer and co-chief operating officer at ClearVision. “This milestone means the world to us because it reflects the heart of who we are—a family-owned company that puts people first, embraces change, and builds culture with intention. We’re so proud of the way our team shows up every day with purpose, creativity, and care. This year’s recognition is extra special and is evidence of our CVO magic in action.

Now in its 18th year, the Best Companies to Work for in New York program recognizes exceptional workplaces across the state. A total of 73 companies were honored this year from among hundreds of submissions. Only a dozen similarly sized companies have received the award 10 or more times, making ClearVision’s Hall of Fame milestone especially meaningful.

The Best Companies program evaluates organizations through an in-depth two-part assessment which examines unique workplace policies, inclusive practices, supportive benefits, and key talent statistics.
