

MARCOLIN AND TIMBERLAND EXTEND LICENSING PARTNERSHIP UNTIL 2031

Longarone (Belluno), October 12, 2026 – Marcolin and TBL Licensing LLC announce today they have extended their licensing agreement for the design, production and worldwide distribution of Timberland® optical frames and sunglasses.

Originally established in 2003, the partnership has grown and strengthened over more than two decades of successful collaboration. The renewal for a further five years, through 2031, reflects the mutual trust, shared vision and enduring commitment between the two companies – further reinforcing a long-standing relationship built on a shared ambition for continued success.

Timberland is a world leader in designing and marketing premium-quality footwear, clothing and accessories for those who embrace the outdoors. In developing its products, the brand continues to explore ways to combine quality, performance and style. Marcolin shares these values, creating eyewear collections that reflect Timberland's distinctive spirit of adventure, quality, and innovation.

The sunglasses and optical frames feature bold, eye-catching designs that combine the brand's rich heritage with contemporary cues and color palettes; many styles are made using bio-based materials.

Timberland Eyewear is available at select Timberland® stores and independent retail stores worldwide, as well e-commerce retailers and opticians.
